Volume VII, Issue I

Dear Members and Friends:

The Howard County Board of Appeals will continue to hear our appeal of the conditional use and variance requested by Rajesh Chopra to locate a 16-bed nursing home facility on 1 acre of residential property. The proposed nursing home will be 9500 square feet, and the largest building in the Crossroads.

Please plan to attend the hearing at 6:30 on Thursday January 28 at 8930 STANFORD BLVD., COLUMBIA, MARYLAND. This off MC Gaw Rd behind Apple Ford and around the traffic circle. Support your neighbors and the Highland Crossroads to oppose this precedent-setting use of residential property -- if this goes through, in this highly-inappropriate location, it could happen in any neighborhood in the Rural Residential or Rural Conservation zones in Howard County.

We apologize for the lack of a recent newsletter. The leadership and the committees have been focusing on zoning issues and enlisting new leadership to assist in our efforts. We will publish shortly.
